

36th Annual Report to the Community

EVERY VOICE

July 2021–June 2022

THE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
of FREDERICK COUNTY

For Good. Forever. For Frederick County.

DEAR FRIENDS of the Community Foundation,

We spent FY2022 building momentum and we are excited about what's ahead. While the pandemic continued to present challenges, The Community Foundation of Frederick County provided vital support in the form of grants, scholarships, and leadership. Thanks to generous donors and committed partners, we continued the important work of addressing the community's most pressing needs.

While it has always been important to us, in 2022 we were very intentional in seeking out and listening to #EVERYVOICE. We spent the last year gathering information and data through a series of audits, surveys and interviews with our key stakeholders and members of the community. We embarked on a year of discovery that has given us valuable insights from diverse audiences, which has formed the foundation for a strategic plan to guide us through the coming years. We also updated our Human Needs Assessment which will result in elevating support in the areas of mental health, affordable housing and disparities in service delivery.

The Community Foundation is in a unique position in that we work closely with very generous and ambitious donors who want to impact the Frederick County community for years to come; and at the same time, we work closely with the local nonprofits that are on the front lines making our community an amazing place to live, work and play. We are an intersection where intention meets action and we want to amplify the many voices that intersect here – the donors, the nonprofits and the communities being served by those nonprofits.

While there were many challenges in 2022, we are also very proud of the successes we were able to accomplish in collaboration with many partners. The Community Foundation distributed $6.3 million in grants to hundreds of nonprofits and $1.8 million in scholarships to 334 students. All of this was made possible by 1,832 donors who contributed 3,301 gifts to one or more of our 750+ component funds, with most gifts going to our existing endowment that spends five percent of the annual market value.

We have spent the last year listening to and amplifying voices and we are just getting started. Thank you for your continued partnership and the trust you have placed in us as we help our donors reach their charitable goals and help our community be a place where all can flourish and thrive.

STRATEGIC PRIORITY: PREPARING FOR AN AGING POPULATION

A MISSION OF MERCY

Frederick County's senior population is growing. Data shows that the elderly population is growing about three times the rate of the overall population in the county.

Not only are there proportionately more older people, but the elderly are living longer so the need for services is increasing in breadth and depth. Diversity, social and economic influences are also changing the types of services seniors need to access.

For many people, accessing basic healthcare is a challenge. For those experiencing additional barriers like speaking a different language, trouble reading or understanding forms, not trusting the "establishment" and not being able to afford medical services, healthcare can seem entirely out of reach.

Founded in 1994, Mission of Mercy provides free medical and dental services, including medications to uninsured and underinsured members of the Frederick County community. It is estimated that during the current grant cycle, Mission of Mercy will provide care for at least 160 uninsured or underinsured seniors, including approximately 400 free medical visits, 135 free dental visits and 600 free prescription medications.

"Our mission provides services in a manner that restores dignity for our patients," said Linda M. Ryan, Mission of Mercy's Executive Director. "Many who are disenfranchised in our community have experienced a number of barriers and Mission of Mercy does everything to remove barriers to medical care."

In addition to providing services at no cost, Mission of Mercy's Development Director, Jennifer White, said that they also have interpreters on site to help patients communicate with the volunteer medical professionals, they walk people through filling out forms that might otherwise cause confusion, and they provide services on site at churches where many feel a sense of trust and security. White said that when people experience barriers, they often just put off care, which can lead to more serious medical and dental issues.

More than 70% of Mission of Mercy's senior medical patients suffer from one or more life-threatening chronic conditions such as diabetes, hypertension or asthma. Roughly half of their patients are struggling with chronic pain that affects their quality of life. Nearly all of their dental patients are suffering from painful and severe dental decay.

Mission of Mercy helps patients safely reduce chronic pain through steroid injections and/or physical therapy, and major dental complications can often be resolved in two to three visits. Seniors are provided with medications they need at the conclusion of their visit.

"There's nothing else like us in the community," White said. "All of the barriers are removed here. We meet the person where they are, and we provide individualized, holistic services so we're treating the whole person. And we do it all with a focus on dignity for the patient."

White added that they are partnering with other health organizations to provide more services to patients while they are on site receiving medical or dental care, including helping people access colonoscopies, mammograms, bone density screenings and food.

Our mission provides services in a manner that restores dignity for our patients.

STRATEGIC PRIORITY: RESPONDING TO SUBSTANCE USE DISORDER

JUSTICE JOBS OF MARYLAND, INC.

Affecting millions across the country, substance use disorder (SUD) is a behavioral health disorder involving heavy use of alcohol and/or drugs.

It's an issue that has grown in prevalence in recent years with rising opioid-related fatality rates. The Community Foundation's focus on SUD includes supporting timely access to qualified providers, providing education and prevention programs, and collecting appropriate data to be used during decision making.

In the spring of 2021, Wendy Bowers was recently released from jail. She was living at Faith House and in need of employment. With a background in accounting, she felt it would be almost impossible to get another job in the finance field after being convicted of embezzlement. She turned to Justice Jobs of Maryland for help and found far more than some assistance with her resume.

Bob Clegg's journey to opening Justice Jobs involved substance use, homelessness and several brushes with the law. But after heeding a stranger's advice at a shelter in Oregon, he started on a path that led to working an entry level job, going back to school, achieving a middle-class life, and eventually coming full circle by helping people overcome the very challenges he had faced.

Clegg founded Justice Jobs of Maryland in 2018 with a goal of helping people overcome barriers including interactions with the judicial system, incarceration, substance use disorder and resume gaps due to related issues.

"The root of my problems stemmed from substance abuse earlier in my life and after I got into a recovery program, I was really able to straighten my life out, it gave me the tools to live responsibly," Clegg said.

After earning multiple degrees and working as a respiratory therapist and later as a scientist, Clegg said he realized that he found the most joy in doing service work. "I learned that a life of service is what makes me happy."

At Justice Jobs, clients get assistance with building a resume, practicing for job interviews, learning how to retain a job once hired, and maybe most importantly, learning how to speak openly about their history and how they have overcome challenges including incarceration and substance abuse.

Clegg said that about 45% of the people they serve have a felony, about 85% have been arrested and about two-thirds have a history with substance use disorder. In the 5 years it's been open, Bob says that more than 225 people have been hired and some of them are able to "move up" into mid-level jobs that afford a middle-class income.

Wendy Bowers went through the Justice Jobs program including a 3-day intensive workshop. She found that employers were open to hiring her when they better understood her background, and that gave her the confidence to re-enter the workforce and start rebuilding her life. She is now a program manager at Justice Jobs and, like Bob, finds tremendous purpose in helping those that are working through some of the same struggles she had to work through.

Clients participate in a workshop at Justice Jobs of Maryland.

Now I feel like I'm helping people who are probably as desperate as I felt last summer. Success for me is becoming a middle class citizen again, my debts paid, supporting myself and living on my own, and just being happy with what I have.

– Wendy Bowers, Justice Jobs Program Manager

STRATEGIC PRIORITY: SUPPORTING FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN

FAMILY PARTNERSHIP

While Frederick County prides itself on being an ideal place for families to raise children, with excellent schools and opportunities for its youth, today's families with children are facing many challenges and an uncertain future.

The Community Foundation supports families with children by making Frederick County a great place for all families to raise children and focusing support and efforts on ALICE (Asset Limited, Income Constrained, Employed) families.

In FY2022, the Community Foundation provided almost $44,000 in grants to Family Partnership for its Family Resilience program.

"We are always looking to enrich our child development and parent education services," said Maria Dennis, Family Programs Supervisor at Family Partnership. "We provide more than child education; we also provide family health education and parent education, and grant funding helps us implement activities as well as planning and assessment tools."

According to Dennis, about 31 parents and 36 children completed the Family Resilience program last year; many are still participating. In an effort to remove barriers to service, they provide transportation, and serve children and parents under the same roof so childcare does not present an issue for attendees. Dennis said they utilize evidence-based assessment and curriculum tools that help them gauge where a child is developmentally, what skills are emerging, and what activities would help further develop those emerging skills. Then that information is shared with the parents so they can understand their child's development and continue activities at home.

"Approximately 90% of the children we serve for six months or more were at or above developmental expectations, so if they stay on that projection, then they will be kindergarten ready or more, when they turn five," Dennis said.

Denora De Karmen Vasquez moved to the U.S. from El Salvador nine years ago. She is married with two children (aged 2 and 6) and says Family Partnership is helping her continue her education, build job readiness skills, and expand her parenting skills.

"My son is learning how to talk and interact with other children and I'm attending ESOL [English language] classes," Vasquez said. "I'm also learning things about my six-year-old like healthy activities to do with him and how to discipline and talk to him."

I will never stop dreaming. Maybe in the future I can go to college and start a career. I have two kids, I want to give them something better.

– Denora De Karmen Vasquez

HOW TO Apply For a Grant

The Community Foundation conducts two annual competitive grant cycles for nonprofits working to have an impact on Frederick County. The Strategic Grants are currently focused on outcome-driven projects that will help accomplish our strategic initiatives in the areas of supporting families with children, preparing for an aging population, and responding to substance use disorder. Impact Grants are for any project that will make a critical difference in Frederick County. Both of these types of grants are made possible by the Community Foundation's funding partners, unrestricted funds, selected donor-advised funds, and field of interest funds. All applications are completed online at www.FrederickCountyGives.org/Grants. The Strategic and Impact grant cycles open in the summer of each year with grant decisions announced in the fall. Other grant opportunities are available throughout the year and are referred to as "rolling grants." Prospective grantees are encouraged to check the website periodically for funding opportunities.

The Community Foundation's Grants Committee carefully reviews each application for the merit of the proposal and compliance with the funds' criteria for grantmaking. In addition, the Community Foundation performs due diligence on each application to ensure that organizations are in good standing at the federal and state level. Grants are limited to 501c3 nonprofit organizations, existing governmental/quasi-governmental agencies, organizations applying for a project not funded by tax revenue, faith-based organizations requesting funding for non-sectarian activities, and civic groups requesting funding for a charitable cause.

All grantees are required to submit reports to the Community Foundation on the use and impact of the grants.

Grant application dates and details are subject to change.

How to apply for a scholarship

The Community Foundation holds more than 270 scholarships, each with unique qualifying criteria. All applications are submitted online and are automatically assigned to all scholarship pools for which they qualify. All applications are then reviewed by a volunteer Scholarship Selection Committee that narrows each scholarship pool to the most qualified applicant. The application period is open in the spring of each year. Some trade and technical scholarships are available on a rolling basis throughout the year. For the specific application availability, please visit www.ScholarshipsFrederickCounty.com or scan the QR code for the most current information.

SCHOLARSHIP SUCCESS STORIES

Angela Staffone

While attending Governor Thomas Johnson High School, Angela took classes at both the Career and Technology Center as well as Frederick Community College. After graduating in 2009, she spent a year at Frederick Community College where she earned her CAD Operator certification and then transferred to the Wentworth Institute of Technology in Boston. She graduated with her bachelor's degree in 2014 and a master's degree in 2015. In 2018, Angela started her own business doing architectural design for residential renovations and additions in the Maryland/DC/Virginia area. She loves that no two projects are the same and enjoys the challenge of working with clients who all have unique styles and budgets. Angela received scholarships in 2011-12 from The George Wesley Gilbert Memorial Scholarship Fund and The Christopher W. Ausherman Scholarship Fund.

Comfort Martins

After graduating from Governor Thomas Johnson High School in 2015, Comfort went on to study nursing at Towson University. She graduated with a nursing degree in 2019 and has been working in the Intensive Care Unit at The University of Maryland Medical Center since. She works as a charge nurse where she oversees patient operations across the unit. While she loves the work she is doing, she is not done with her education just yet. She has plans to earn a doctorate in nursing practice specializing in anesthesia. She said she is concerned about the toll the opioid epidemic has taken on society and wants to be a part of a system in which pain can be managed adequately without reliance on opioids. Comfort received support from The Frank M. and Helen Elizabeth Erwin Scholarship Fund.

Johao Mejia

A 2015 graduate of Urbana High School, Johao attended the University of Maryland College Park where he graduated in 2019 with a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering. "I always wanted to do something that impacts others, so after college I started working in biotech," Johao said. He has spent the last few years gaining experience at different companies in development and manufacturing and currently works as a senior bioprocess associate at Emergent BioSolutions, Inc. His job entails working in a clean room in a sterile suit growing cells in bioreactors for vaccines. Johao received a scholarship from The Captain John Ryan Dennison Scholarship Fund.

Susanne Cassidy

Susanne graduated from Governor Thomas Johnson High School in 2007 with plans to take a class or two at Frederick Community College. She said that receiving a scholarship from The Routzahn Business Scholarship Fund provided just enough support to make it possible for her to afford to enroll as a full-time student. "People say it doesn't add up to much, but it was enough to make it possible for me to go to school full time," Susanne said. After Frederick Community College, Susanne began working full time and attending University of Maryland University College (now Global Campus) at night, earning a bachelor's degree in 2011 and a master's degree in emergency management in 2015. She now works for a federal government agency doing medical research contracting. "I enjoy what I do," Susanne said. "I like knowing that this medical research contracting is ultimately helping people with health problems by curing disease or making life better in some way." Susanne recently made a donation to the Community Foundation in the amount of the scholarship she received, saying that the scholarship gave her the financial support necessary, and the motivation, to attend school full time, thus helping her end up where she is today. She said she feels it is important to pay it forward so that other students can realize their educational dreams.

“That scholarship relieved a lot of stress for me, that was the springboard I needed to become who I am today.

– Susanne Cassidy, Past Scholarship Recipient”

Bradley Stone

Bradley Stone, a recipient of The Lisa A. Orndorff Lajewski Memorial Scholarship Fund, graduated from Brunswick High School in 2016 and went on to earn a degree in Exercise Science from Towson University in 2020. "I'm very grateful to have had a financial cushion that allowed me to stress less about finances and focus more on school, which led to learning more and achieving a GPA I'm very proud of," Stone said. Bradley is a certified emergency medical technician (EMT) and volunteers with the United Steam Fire Engine Company #3 in Frederick. After working for more than a year at the James M. Stockman Cancer Institute in their oncology and hematology offices, Bradley is now a medical assistant at Chesapeake Urology Associates.

PROFESSIONAL ADVISOR COUNCIL

Formed in 2009, the Frederick County Professional Advisor Council is comprised of attorneys, accountants, trust officers, financial planners, certified life underwriters, investment advisors, and other certified, licensed and degreed professionals who advise on financial and legal decisions that may include charitable giving.

Each professional helps promote philanthropy in the community by sharing their expertise and helping donors create maximum return on their charitable investment. These investments benefit future generations with scholarships for students and grants for nonprofits.

Professional advisors are uniquely qualified to help guide charitable giving, whether through a current or planned gift. Bequests, personal property or real estate, securities, life insurance, retirement assets, or annuities or trusts all provide pathways for clients who wish to create and leave a legacy.

The Frederick County Professional Advisor Council provides multi-disciplinary, collegial networking, and in-person educational meetings that cover a variety of topics related to philanthropy. Additionally, a variety of resources to support charitable giving, including in-depth information and calculators, are available on the "Advisor" section of the Community Foundation website.

As our partnership grows and membership in the Council expands, we invite other professional advisors who would like to become involved to contact the Community Foundation.

The Professional Advisor Council brings professionals together with differing backgrounds, be it accounting, legal, investment, or trust, to exchange ideas and strategies. Also, to learn through professional development and to incorporate The Community Foundation of Frederick County into our clients' estate plans.

Three people were honored in FY2022 for their volunteer efforts in Frederick County.

With their awards from The Janis Miller Wertheimer Endowment Fund, Rose Dorsey Chaney created The David Key Memorial Fund for AARCH Society to support African American Resources Cultural and Heritage programs and initiatives, and Hermine Bernstein contributed to The Blessings in a Backpack Fund to support the nonprofit that provides food resources for school-aged youth. Youth in Action honoree Stella Henson presented a grant to Spanish Speaking Community of Maryland.

Each fund that is established amplifies a voice in the community in some way. The Community Foundation is proud to manage more than 770 funds that support the passions of our donors and impact important causes throughout the community. Every fund—whether permanent, pass through, unrestricted, donor-advised, designated, scholarship, field of interest, agency, or fiscal sponsorship — creates philanthropy that benefits Frederick County. In FY2022, 1,832 caring donors made 3,301 contributions to one or more funds. The Community Foundation is grateful to every donor who chooses to support one or more causes they care about with their charitable gifts. HOW TO START YOUR OWN FUND

Founded by Ching Jou and Lily Gu Gou, The Gou Family Charitable Fund provides grants to nonprofits and scholarships to post-secondary students. The Gou family has many philanthropic interests and believes the fund will enable them to carry out their charitable intentions for many years to come.

Establish your goals.

Do you want to make your gift now, or establish your fund with a planned gift? Do you want to provide grants and/or scholarships now or after your passing? Either way, establishing a fund with the Community Foundation is a wonderful way to sustain a cause that is near and dear to you, support specific areas of education, honor loved ones or establish a legacy. Once you've decided on your goals, the Community Foundation staff can help you determine the type of fund that will ensure your charitable goals are met.

NEXT, DETERMINE A SUITABLE NAME FOR THE FUND.

There are many ways to name a fund. Many funds include the donor's name or name(s) of those being honored by the fund. Some fund names reference the specific cause or organization they benefit.

WHAT TYPE OF GIFT WOULD YOU LIKE TO USE TO START THE FUND?

While many funds are started with gifts of cash totaling $25,000 or more, non-cash gifts such as real estate, securities or life insurance are also options. For gifts of $500,000 or more, you may recommend an investment professional outside of the Community Foundation's investment pool, pending certain criteria. Your financial advisors can help you determine what type of gift to use, and the Community Foundation encourages you to consult with them prior to making your gift.

HOW INVOLVED DO YOU WANT TO BE WITH THE FUND?

Do you want to review grant applications? Do you want to sit on a scholarship selection committee? Do you want the comfort of knowing that a check is sent to your favorite cause each year? Do you want your family to be involved with the fund after your passing? Your intended involvement helps to determine the type of fund that you choose.

IF YOU'D LIKE TO CONTRIBUTE LESS THAN $25,000, DON'T WORRY.

You can "plant a seed" by starting a fund and becoming a member of the Acorn Society. Simply select a name for the fund and agree to grow the fund to at least $25,000 within two years or less. Once your fund reaches $25,000, disbursements can be made. Other ways to create impact include contributing to a field of interest fund or any of our other funds, or establishing your legacy by deciding on a planned gift. No matter how much you decide to contribute, the Community Foundation makes the act of giving easy.

“My husband Bill was a wonderful caring advocate for our animal rescue organization. When Bill died, I wanted to memorialize his work and make it possible for others to carry on. I felt that setting up the fund was the best way to honor Bill's legacy.

and Hettie Ballweber Fund*

Types of Funds

The Community Foundation of Frederick County holds two categories of funds: permanent funds and pass through funds. Permanent funds generally never spend the initial gift and subsequent gifts, with a portion of the fund supporting the charitable purpose defined by the fund's founding donor. Permanent funds include endowed funds and quasi-endowed funds. Endowed funds distribute 5 percent of the annual market value, never invading gift principal. Quasi-endowed funds distribute 5 percent of the fund's annual market value each year. Pass through funds may distribute all gifts as well as the investment return for the charitable purpose. Permanent funds and pass through funds may be any of the following types of funds: designated, unrestricted, donor-advised, scholarship, field of interest, agency, or fiscal sponsorship. You can start a named fund for as little as $25,000—using cash, securities, real estate, life insurance, art, or other assets. For more information about types of funds, please see page 74.

Property You Can Use to Create Your Fund

Some people have asked if the Community Foundation accepts only cash contributions. The answer is no. There are many ways to establish a fund. Some ideas you may wish to consider are listed here.

CASH

You may establish your fund by giving a check to the Community Foundation. You receive the maximum tax deduction for your contribution in the year you make it. Any unused deduction can ordinarily be used over the five succeeding years.

SECURITIES

You may donate securities to your fund. You get the maximum tax deduction, equal to the current value of the securities. If that deduction is larger than what you can use in the year of your gift, the excess amount may ordinarily be deducted over the five succeeding years.

If the securities are appreciated, you pay no capital gains tax. If you own depreciated securities, it may be best if you sell them, take the loss for personal income tax purposes, and contribute the proceeds to the Community Foundation.

REAL ESTATE

Your real estate holdings can also benefit charity. Gifts of long-term appreciated real estate offer advantages similar to gifts of appreciated securities. Real estate will be accepted by the Community Foundation if it is readily saleable and does not require long-term management. You are required to obtain an appraisal to establish the value of the real estate for your tax deduction.

LIFE INSURANCE

You may donate your life insurance policy to your fund. You receive an immediate tax deduction, usually in an amount equal to the cash surrender value. If you wish to keep the policy in force, your continued premium payments are tax deductible if the Community Foundation is the owner of the policy. If you don't want to give up the policy, you can name the Community Foundation as a full or partial beneficiary.

ART AND OTHER TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

You may use your paintings, sculptures, jewelry, etc. to establish a charitable fund as long as the property can be sold easily. You will be responsible for obtaining an appraisal to establish the value of the personal property for your tax deduction.

HOW TO START YOUR OWN FUND

Some Examples of Ways You Can Establish or Expand Your Fund:

OUTRIGHT GIFT DURING YOUR LIFETIME

An outright gift is the simplest of all gifts to make and can be made now. It provides the greatest and most immediate support. The most common way to make an outright gift is a gift of cash, which can be used to establish your own fund, or can be added to an existing fund. In addition to a gift of cash, outright gifts can be in the form of publicly-traded securities or by transferring other assets directly to the Community Foundation.

BEQUEST

Perhaps you are making decisions on a new will. You have taken care of all the usual details, assigned sentimental possessions, and provided for relatives.

You can stipulate that all remaining assets go to create your fund or to add to an existing fund, possibly significantly reducing the taxes payable by your estate. Your fund will support community needs in your name permanently.

Or, you simply write a codicil (amendment) to your existing will. You state that in addition to or instead of certain provisions of that will, you would like to leave the remaining assets, or a specific dollar amount, to the Community Foundation for whatever purpose you determine. Your lawyer can assist you in making this change. The Community Foundation also has suggested language for making provisions in your will.

CHARITABLE LEAD TRUST

You may have provided for your children already or you may want to provide for your children in the future, but not now. With a charitable lead trust, you donate part of your estate to the trust now, and the income goes to your fund for a designated period of years. Your taxes are reduced and the property is not taxed to your children. After a period of time that you specify, the trust terminates and the assets go to your children. The charity benefits during all those years and your children may receive much more than they would have otherwise.

GIFTS FROM AN ESTATE OR TRUST

As the Personal Representative under a will, you are directed to allocate a certain amount of money for general charitable purposes. Some professional guidance may be helpful to you.

You may set up a fund within the Community Foundation in the name of the deceased. With the approval of the court, if necessary, you arrange to have the charitable portion of the estate paid to this fund. The Community Foundation would then assume the responsibility of carrying out the deceased's charitable interests.

LIFE INCOME (CHARITABLE REMAINDER) TRUST

You may have achieved a fairly comfortable accumulation of assets, but would like an income for yourself, your spouse, or other beneficiaries for the rest of your lives. Ultimately you want charity to benefit from your estate.

You can establish a charitable remainder trust that pays you and/or your designees for your lifetimes, with the remainder of the trust going to your fund. You receive a substantial income tax deduction and estate taxes will be reduced upon your death. If you prefer, you can establish a charitable remainder trust in your will, providing a life income for surviving beneficiaries. Because of the charitable estate tax deduction, the surviving beneficiaries may receive a larger income than would otherwise be possible.

Two Types of Charitable Remainder Trusts:

ANNUITY TRUST

A fixed income trust from which you or your beneficiaries will receive a set amount each year.

UNITRUST

A variable income trust from which you or your beneficiaries will receive a percentage of the trust's assets. Changes in the asset value of the trust will affect the level of your income each year.

The minimum amount recommended for a charitable remainder trust is $100,000.

ASSIGNMENT OF TRUST FUND INCOME

You may be the beneficiary of a trust which pays you a regular income. Even though you may give some of this income to charity, you may not receive maximum tax benefits.

If you assign to your fund a portion of this annual income for the benefit of charity, you pay no further tax on this income. In addition, you may take an immediate income tax deduction for the value of this assignment. If this deduction is more than you can use in the year of the assignment, the excess may ordinarily be deducted over the five succeeding years.

CORPORATE FUNDS

Perhaps you are an executive in a business or corporation, responsible in part for corporate giving. How do you sift through the blizzard of charitable appeals?

You can establish a fund with the Community Foundation, either in the name of the corporation or an anonymous name. The Community Foundation then distributes the gift for you, relieving you of this burden.

CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITY

When you want to make a gift of cash or appreciated property and receive fixed payments for the rest of your life, you can create a Charitable Gift Annuity agreement with the Community Foundation. At the end of your life the Community Foundation receives the remainder of the gift. A portion of most gift annuity payments are tax free, and the remainder of the income is taxed at ordinary rates and possibly capital gains rates.

TRANSFER YOUR FOUNDATION'S ASSETS

If you are a trustee of a private foundation, you may establish a fund within the Community Foundation in the name of the private foundation. After arranging to transfer all or part of the assets of the foundation to the fund, the Community Foundation takes care of all the paperwork required by the government. Investments are handled by experienced people. Taxes are no longer imposed, and the amount available for charity is increased. You are secure in knowing that the fund will be administered permanently by the Community Foundation.

TRANSFER A CHARITABLE ORGANIZATION'S ASSETS

Perhaps you are on the board of directors of a charitable organization which is terminating. You may create a fund within the Community Foundation in the name of your organization. You liquidate the assets in accordance with all laws and IRS regulations and transfer them to the fund, specifying that the income will be used only for grants in a similar field of interest. The mission of your organization is thereby continued in perpetuity.

The Priscilla J. and William G. Roessler Charitable Youth Fund was established by James L. Roessler in memory of his parents to support organizations that serve youth up to 18 years of age who wish to participate in educational and art programs as well as extracurricular activities. According to James, the Roesslers' dream was fulfilled with the creation of this fund and thanks to their generosity and vision, their fund will help provide vital support to local nonprofit organizations serving Frederick County youth.

AT A Glance

ESTABLISH A NEW FUND WITH THE MINIMUM GIFT OF $25,000.

If your gift is less than $25,000, you may make the gift to an existing fund or become an Acorn Society Member.

Consult your professional advisor. The Community Foundation staff can provide details about each gift type, but does not give legal or tax advice. You are urged to consult with your attorney, banker, accountant, or financial planner before making a gift or establishing a fund.

- Decide whether to make your gift now or later
- Name the fund
- Select the gift to be given
- Determine the type and purpose of the fund
- Take advantage of the Community Foundation's "$500,000 policy" to recommend an investment professional outside of the Community Foundation's investment pool
- Decide on life income interest (if any)

FUND PERFORMANCE

Well-managed charitable funds benefit our community now and in perpetuity. Donors start funds with a minimum gift of $25,000 to benefit the causes that they choose. These funds are then invested, with a portion of the funds spent each year according to the spending policies that the donors choose at the time the funds are established.

Professional investment managers invest the Community Foundation's assets in accordance with the Community Foundation's investment policies. Investment performance is monitored and overseen by the Investment Committee, comprised of Community Foundation trustees and others with investment expertise. The Community Foundation's financial statements, including investments, contributions, and future interests, are audited annually by an independent auditor and are available for public review.

Investment Options

Hundreds of named Community Foundation funds are invested as follows:

THE GROWTH OPTION

Growth to a certain benchmark defines this option. Almost the entire portfolio is held in equities. When the fund reaches the intended benchmark, it is transferred to another investment option to start awarding scholarships and/or grants.

THE BALANCED GROWTH OPTION

Growing the fund at an acceptable level of risk defines this option that is generally used for quasi-endowment funds. This portfolio has tiered investments, with the majority in equities and smaller amounts in other instruments.

THE BALANCED INCOME OPTION

Producing income while growing the fund defines this option generally used for endowment funds. This portfolio holds tiered investments, with the majority in fixed income instruments and smaller amounts in equities and money market funds.

THE MAINTENANCE OF PRINCIPAL OPTION

Preservation of principal is this option's only objective. This portfolio is held in money market accounts and certificates of deposit.

THE ALTERNATIVE INVESTMENT OPTION

Donors establishing a fund with $500,000 or more may recommend an investment manager and strategy, subject to the approval of the Community Foundation's Board of Trustees.

Administrative Budget

Because 100 percent of every donation is placed into a charitable fund according to the donor's instructions, the Community Foundation meets its operational expenses through:

THE ADMINISTRATIVE FUND

This permanent fund was created in 1990 to support the Community Foundation's operations and community education activities.

MANAGEMENT FEES

An annual management fee is assessed on the market value of each component fund. Please see page 74, "Fund Types," for detailed information.

THE WIDENING CIRCLES SOCIETY AND PARTNERS IN PHILANTHROPY CAMPAIGN

This annual campaign raises money specifically for the Community Foundation to invest in community outreach to promote philanthropy. Campaign donors become members of the Widening Circles Society and businesses and civic groups who donate become Partners in Philanthropy.
